Over the last 10 years and through many risk assessments we have discovered that there is a critical need throughout the education community. Institutes need to protect their students, faculty, staff and their own reputation and traditions in this ever changing and challenging world. Sensitive to that need, a product was created first in the UK, and now in America, to meet that ever widening challenge. The top name in security, The Guidry Group has partnered with the top name in specialized risk insurance, Lloyds of London to create Lloyd Guidry, LLC.

The StudentCare program was developed in response to the many serious security issues which now face universities, colleges and schools in the United States. It is brought to you by Lloyd-Guidry, a joint venture between the Guidry Group and the UK based Lloyd Wright Consultancy Ltd. The Guidry Group also provides global incident response from a 24/7 command center individuals, businesses and governments in over 100 countries. The Lloyd Wright Consultancy has extensive experience in the university sector and has a reputation for providing innovative insurance solutions. We have worked with many leading UK universities and colleges to provide solutions to the problems they face on a daily basis. The product is underwritten by Lloyds of London and claims will be handled by Lloyd-Guidry's 24/7 command centre with authority provided by the insurer.
